

www.centerforamericasfirsthorse.org

BENEFIT TRAIL RIDE

Followed by Chili Lunch and Bonfire!

Please join us for trail riding through the woods and quiet dirt roads of Johnson. 100% of the proceeds benefit The Center for America's First Horse, a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of the rare Colonial Spanish Horse.

WHEN: Saturday, October 16th Rain, Snow, or Shine. Ride starts at 10:00.

WHERE: The Center for America's First Horse, Johnson, VT

COST: $25 per rider, includes lunch--$7 per person for lunch if not riding

Prizes and raffle following the ride!

Pre-Registration Required

Directions: Take Route 15 to Johnson. Turn onto Pearl Street (follow signs for Johnson State College). In one mile you will see the Johnson State College entrance on your right . Go .7 miles up the hill (Pearl Street turns into Clay Hill Rd). Driveway to The Center is on the right, you will see the sign. Follow arrows to parking area.

RULES:

Please leave your dogs at home
Due to liability reasons, no stallions allowed
Helmets required for minors
Registration fees are not refundable

Registration Form

Send registration and payment made payable to:

Center for America's First Horse
PO Box 274, Morrisville, VT 05661

For more info: Stephanie Lockhart, Vtblackpony@aol.com or 505-340-8376 (cell)

Riders Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone #: _____

Email: _____

Additional lunch people? How many? _____